

The President Says

The Northwest Missourian has invited me to write a "column" this year. I shall be glad to do so. While every student is invited to come to my office at any time for conference on any subject, yet comparatively few do so. The invitation is therefore welcomed as an opportunity to talk to students from time to time.

I'll make two promises. First, I'll say what I think on such subjects as I think should be of interest, and second, the "column" will be short enough to be read.

FEW CHANGES ANNOUNCED IN STC FACULTY

Music Department Has New Head; Five Join Staff of Horace Mann.

With the opening of the fall quarter, a few new members were added to the college faculty. The Northwest Missouri Teachers Association, to meet next week, has in its program a formal introduction of those added to the regular faculty since the meeting of the association last year. Not included are the new members of the faculty working in the Horace Mann Laboratory School.

The educational experience of these new faculty people is wide and varied.

Dr. Reven S. DeJarnette, the new head of the music department, received his Bachelor of Music degree at the University of Kansas. He received his Master of Arts and Doctor of Education degrees at New York University.

Dr. DeJarnette began his teaching at Shurtleff College at Alton, Illinois. Several years later he was head of the music department at Southwestern State Teachers College of Oklahoma and more recently at the State Teachers College at Mansfield, Pennsylvania.

Dr. DeJarnette is the author of several articles and a book published last spring and has served in numerous official capacities in state and national music organizations.

Under the guidance of Dr. DeJarnette the College may expect a big year for the music department.

Miss Marian B. Lippitt, who is performing the duties of director of personnel for women, received her B. A. degree from Antioch College and her M. A. from the University of Chicago. She has completed a year of additional study in personnel work there.

While at Antioch Miss Lippitt served in several capacities. She was a member of the psychiatric department and held several cooperative positions there.

Miss Lippitt has been closely associated with the Training School for girls in Toledo, Ohio; Carson, Prie, Scott Department Store, Chicago, Illinois; Methodist Children's Village, Detroit, Michigan; and the Neura Psychiatric Hospital, Hartford, Conn. She has served on the staff of the President's Advisory Committee on Education in Washington, D. C.

For the past three years Miss Lippitt has been Student Counselor in Community High School, a large suburban high school in Blue Island, Illinois, near Chicago.

Miss Inez R. Lewis is the new commerce teacher secured to take the place of the former Miss Minnie B. James. Miss Lewis has a secretary diploma from the Gem City Business College, Quincy, Illinois, and a B. S. in Education from the Kirksville State Teachers College, Kirksville, Missouri. She received her M. A. from Columbia University, New York City.

For the past five years Miss Lewis has served in the capacity of secretary and assistant in the Curriculum Laboratory, Teachers College, Columbia University.

Miss Lewis's home is at Maywood, Missouri, but she states she had been in New York City so long she had forgotten how courteous and hospitable Missouri people were. In her four weeks' stay in Maryville, Miss Lewis has been very favorably impressed by the student body, and she considers it a pleasure to be working with future American leaders and teachers.

Miss Eileen Elliott, new instructor in the Home Economics department, is a graduate of the College in 1937. She received a B. S. with a major in Home Economics and a minor in English. She has completed the requirements for her M. S. degree from Columbia University, New York.

Miss Elliott, whose home is North Kansas City, has taught in the Hannibal and Jefferson City schools. She is living in the Home (Continued on page 4)

DR. HENRY C. WOLFE
Expert on Foreign Affairs, distinguished author, and lecturer.

Dr. Wolfe, Foreign Expert, Will Speak

Wide Range of Experience Enables Him to Analyze.

Dr. Henry C. Wolfe, distinguished author and foreign affairs expert, will speak at 9:30 o'clock, Thursday morning, October 10, in the Auditorium of the Main Street Methodist Church, in an address at the opening session of the twenty-third annual meeting of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association.

"What is Happening in World Affairs," will be the speaker's topic. From real experience he brings his findings. He was in Czechoslovakia during the Munich crisis. Following that, he was in the trouble centers in Poland, Russia, Italy, Finland, and Rumania. He witnessed the early weeks of the war in France.

Dr. Wolfe, who has been decorated by six governments for his brilliant work in the field of international relations, is the man who predicted the Nazi-Soviet pact four months before it actually occurred. His recently published book, "The Imperial Soviets," is a detailed analysis of the underlying reasons which made the pact inevitable and a consideration of the results it may have in this war.

"The Nazi-Soviet relationship is not based on friendship. It is not a genuine alliance," says Dr. Wolfe. "It is a working relationship of two revolutionary regimes that serves the immediate purposes of both. But inasmuch as both these dictatorships are guided by opportunism, their cooperation could end just as suddenly as it started."

Though he is still a young man, Dr. Wolfe's close-up of European affairs extends back more than two dynamic decades. In the first World War, he served on the French front before the arrival of the American Army, and later on the Italian front in a small volunteer unit which included Ernest Hemingway, John Dos Passos, and Julian Green.

For the past twenty-three years, Dr. Wolfe has devoted himself exclusively to the study of foreign affairs. His earlier book, "The German Octopus," received great attention and firmly established him as one of the brilliant and penetrating observers of foreign affairs in the field. In his book, which was published before the Austrian Anschluss, he predicted not only that event, but the whole subsequent policy of German expansion.

Mr. Cooper Addresses Livingston Co. Teachers

Mr. Bert Cooper was a guest speaker Saturday, September 28, at a meeting of the Livingston County Teachers Association in Chillicothe, Missouri. His subject was "Educational Possibilities in the Rural Schools."

Also on the program was Mr. J. C. Penney, of St. Joseph, whose subject was "Human Relationships." Mr. Cooper spoke on October 1, at the first community meeting of the year held at Guilford, Missouri. He gave an address on "Education for Democracy in the Schools and in the Community."

It was a meeting of the entire community and was well attended.

NEW SHIPS TO BE IN USE IN PILOT COURSE

Local Company Co-Operating with CAA to Bring Large Bomber Here.

With receipt of the approval of a secondary unit in Civil Pilot Training at STC by Pres. Uel W. Lamkin from the Civil Aeronautics Authority board in Kansas City, came the announcement that a local corporation had been formed to furnish ships, flying fields and instructors for the flying cadets.

Recently the Maryville School of Aeronautics was incorporated with a decree being issued by the circuit court. This corporation will provide the equipment and instructors for the primary and secondary courses as sponsored by the Maryville Teachers College and take over the entire course January 15, which will be the end of the term for flying course for which the Pony Express of St. Joseph now provides ships for the beginning students.

Field Is Enlarged

The incorporators are Hugh Armstrong, Joseph Jackson, Sr., and Dr. Charles T. Bell. According to Mr. Jackson this company has taken a lease on 120 acres, southeast of Maryville, belonging to M. O. Anderson of Bethany, formerly known as the Pierpont land. A portion of this field was used for the primary training course in flying during the summer term at college from which fifteen students completed their required course.

Now there are three courses under college sponsorship, two in primary training and one in secondary training, in which there are ten students in each unit and all under the instruction of Capt. Edward Schultz. The local company is constructing a hangar at the field which will house three ships, including a large Waco bomber. Mr. Jackson said the secondary course will begin this week.

To Fly Bomber Here
Although delivery on airplanes is difficult at this time, due to the demand from the United States and foreign governments, the ships will arrive here in the next two weeks. Capt. Schultz will go to Pennsylvania to fly the bomber to Maryville. This ship will be used for the secondary course of instruction in the five-year flying course inaugurated here.

One of the smaller ships will be delivered October 6 and the other one about a week later. Students in the primary course will use the smaller ships, which are of the latest design.

Must Be Approved by CAA
Under the program, all equipment and instruction must be approved by the Civil Aeronautics Authority and must be sponsored by some recognized educational institution.

The small hangar erected on the flying field by the Pony Express company probably will be dismantled when it completes the course of instruction for the present term that ends the middle of January.

This field is about three times larger than used this summer in the primary course, as more facilities are required by the CAA for the secondary course in flying. With the end of the present term the Maryville School of Aeronautics not only will furnish the equipment for the secondary course, but also for the primary, or beginners' course.

Graduate Does Scout Work in St. Joseph

Charles Churchill, B. S. 1940, was guest of honor at a basket dinner, September 27, given by Boy Scout troop No. 6 and cub pack No. 4, and parents of the boys in connection with a court of honor at the Huffman Memorial Methodist Church in St. Joseph. Mr. Churchill has been named scoutmaster of troop No. 6 of the church and also recently been appointed educational and recreation director at the Home for Little Wanderers in St. Joseph.

When in the College, Mr. Churchill was an assistant scoutmaster, scoutmaster, a district commissioner and the president of the Alpha Chi Omega fraternity.

Former Student Weds KMBC News Announcer

Nelle Zimmerman of Cameron, a former student, became the bride of Claud Dorsey, October 2, in the pastor's study of the Wesley Methodist Church in Kansas City. Miss Zimmerman is a former student of the College and a member of the Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority and of the Association for Childhood Education. Mr. Dorsey is better known as "John Farer" news announcer over KMBC in Kansas City.

After a two weeks wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey will be at home at 8721 Wyoming Street, Kansas City.

Drew Pearson
Columnist and Co-writer of "Washington Merry-Go-Round"

COLUMNIST IS COMPETENT TO HAVE OPINION

Drew Pearson Has Been in Many Stirring Situations Touching War and Peace

When Drew Pearson, American newspaper columnist and widely quoted author of the "Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round," comes here to address the Teachers Association, college students who attend the lecture will see and hear a man who has perhaps personally witnessed more stirring scenes and events than any other newspaper man in the United States today.

He has covered almost every possible type of story that a reporter, in fact or fiction, could conceive. He has traveled widely, and his career, somewhat checkered throughout, has found him equally at home in the lecture halls of educational institutions and the wilds of far-off Siberia. He has known war and peace, revolution and insurrection, and the intrigue of international politics as well as the no less interesting labyrinths of domestic politics. Through them all he has been the calm appraiser, the ready reporter, sifting and refitting the facts, and reporting back to his readers, now numbered in the millions, the findings of his observations.

Today, Drew Pearson holds an eminent position among newspaper men in the United States and elsewhere, and is respected for his ability to "cover" and interpret the news as it happens.

What kind of background does Drew Pearson have? What education must a man, or woman, have to attain the heights that he has attained? Where did he come from in the first place?

To these questions of the curious, Drew Pearson himself would probably answer that he had no real background other than that which "just grew" during his checkered career. But actually, he is a well-educated man, as anyone who reads his column must know. Born Illinois and Pearson, at Evanston, Illinois, forty-three years ago, he was educated at the Phillips Academy in Exeter, New Hampshire, and at Swarthmore College. He took his A. B. degree from Swarthmore in 1919. He is married, and has one child, a (Continued on page 4)

Dr. Kelly Takes New Position at Ypsilanti, Mich.

Dr. Joseph P. Kelly has resigned his position as chairman of the department of speech at STC to accept a similar position at the Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti, Mich.

"I have thoroughly enjoyed my association at Northwest Missouri State Teachers College and my entire family has become very attached to Maryville," said Dr. Kelly. "I particularly appreciate the policy of the administration of the college which permits me to go to another position at this late date."

Dr. Kelly, who was entering his seventh year as the speech department chairman at STC, had also served as a member of the program committee and member of the athletic committee at STC. He is an honorary member of Phi Sigma Epsilon, national social Teachers College fraternity.

Dr. Kelly expects to leave for Michigan State Normal College, which has the distinction of being the oldest Teachers College west of the Alleghenies, at the earliest convenience of the College here. His family will remain in Maryville for approximately one month.

MISS BOZEMAN SAYS ALCOHOL DULLS BRAINS

W. C. T. U. Sponsors Tour as Part of Its Narcotic Education Training.

Do you know how to refuse a drink? Simply say, "Oh, you want to dissolve my lipid, dehydrate my protoplasm, and paralyze my synapses."

These are the effects of alcohol on the human body, said Miss Estelle Bozeman in a lecture at the College last week. Miss Bozeman, who is a representative of the W. C. T. U., spoke on the subject "What Alcohol Is and What It Does." She said the amount of alcohol contained in one bottle of beer is enough to dull a great deal the ability to think.

Miss Bozeman proved herself to be an interesting and intelligent person. She spoke to various groups at the College Thursday and Friday and at the teachers meeting Saturday. She also spoke at both the Christian and Methodist Churches Sunday morning.

Miss Bozeman's lecture tour, in this state, is sponsored by the National Women's Christian Temperance Union; however, she sometimes travels under the auspices of the National Parent Teachers Association. In some states, she is engaged by the state board of education.

Georgia is her native state. She has attended the Georgia State College for Women, Georgia State University, and Columbia University where she majored in Home Economics.

Miss Bozeman has had many varied and interesting experiences. She has taught both in high school and college. She was affiliated with the National Y. W. C. A. for five years during which time she was employed at their cafeteria and tea room in Washington, D. C. She has also been employed by the United States Department of Agriculture, doing home demonstration work. Besides this Miss Bozeman has operated her own tea room in New York City. She says that she has visited sixty or more colleges in thirty-five states of the Union and Canada.

Miss Bozeman is to remain in this state for six weeks more. She then will go to Georgia and from there to Tennessee. After this she will attend the round table discussion at the National Women's Christian Temperance Union Seminary in Chicago.

Her work is very fascinating, she said, and there are many openings for young people who have had some teaching experience although it is not prerequisite to the narcotic education training.

Health Lecturer Is Recognized Humorist

"Humor at its best," is how Dr. Frederick W. Maroney's lectures have been characterized by those who have heard him speak.

Dr. Maroney comes to Maryville to address the Teachers Association at the second general session, Thursday afternoon, October 10, on "Health Education—Every Teacher's Responsibility," a subject particularly pertinent at present when mental hygiene and educational conditions are so much in the limelight.

Those who know Dr. Maroney say that he is gifted with a charming personality and a stimulating sense of humor. His experience and training make him a recognized authority in the field of Health Education and his excellence as a speaker has made him a popular part of the programs on which he has appeared.

Sorority Announces Pledges

The Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority wishes to announce the following girls as pledges: Betty Gay, Cameron; Jean Lewis, Catherine Judson, Helen Matters, Dora Miller, and Betty Duncan, St. Joseph; Jean Waltman, Tina, Mo.; Jean Ann Alender, Albany; Margaret Gray, Gravity, Ia.; Le Veta McQueen, Rushville; Wilma Hadorn, Savannah; and Jean Gordon, Maysville.

Everybody Likes It!

"I had rather have this letter than to have won the Chadron game," said President Uel W. Lamkin, adding, of course, "I am glad for both."

His remark was apropos of the following letter, written from Chadron, Nebraska, September 30, 1940, to the president of the College.

Dear Sir:

I have operated four cafes in Nebraska and South Dakota for the past sixteen years. During this period I have had the pleasure of serving all types of college athletics from various sections of the

Fifty-Fourth Course Is Given for Drivers

Leaders of Young People Take Advantage of the Course Being Offered.

Eight persons are enrolled in the Driver Education and Training course which is being conducted this week at the College. The course, which has been especially prepared for high school teachers in order that they may teach high school students both classroom and road instruction to insure safer driving, has attracted both teachers and students.

Those enrolled are: Arthur Yates, physical education instructor in the Maryville High School; Margaret Porter, instructor of social science, Maryville High; R. V. Bloomfield, Director of Public School Safety and Vice-President of the St. Joseph Safety Council; St. Joseph; Harold A. Symphon, Guilford; David White, mathematics and science instructor in the Horace Mann school; and Kinell Coulson, Paul Greene, and Theodore Young, students of the College.

This is the fifty-fourth intensive one-week training program to be conducted in this country. Last week, the program was given at Kirksville.

Personnel of instructors in the program at STC includes: Prof. Amos E. Neyhart, road instructor; Dr. F. R. Noffsinger, classroom instructor; and E. P. Drury, safety director of the Automobile Club of Missouri. Both Dr. Noffsinger and Prof. Neyhart are educational consultants for the American Automobile Association at Washington.

A Must Program
Mr. Drury said "We can make no further progress in traffic accident prevention until the secondary schools make driver training an essential part of their program. This is a must program."

"We are losing more young people in Missouri through traffic accidents than through illness and disease," Mr. Drury said. "Ten thousand youths of high school age have been killed or injured since the inception of school patrol in the elementary school where not a single child has been injured or killed wherever the patrol system had been installed."

"The elementary schools have successfully dealt with the safety problem. When the secondary schools provide driver training they will be able to deal with the driver problem just as successfully. Proper driving habits will then become a part of the cultural life of Americans."

Tests Friday
The classroom instruction and practical driving experiences are being integrated in the course at STC. Instruction periods are from 8 to 12 o'clock in the morning and from 1:30 o'clock to 7 in the afternoon.

On Friday afternoon tests will be given in which students driving dual controlled cars will be tested by the AAA jerk recorder and the AAA brake reaction detector. It is planned to use College Avenue near the STC gym as the testing street for the course.

The jerk recorder has two important uses: teaching students taking the course to drive more smoothly by giving them an objective measure of their driving; and for measuring how smoothly drivers operate buses, trucks and street cars. The brake reaction detector makes it possible to measure both the reaction time distance and the braking distance at any speed.

Townpeople and others interested in seeing these tests conducted are urged to attend.

METHODIST CHURCH WILL BE MEETING PLACE FOR GENERAL SESSIONS OF ASSOCIATION

MR. H. D. WILLIAMS
Association President, 1940.

H. D. Williams, President of Association, Will Address Opening Session.

STUDENTS MAY ATTEND

Homecoming Game on Friday Will Close Twenty-Third Annual Teachers Association

It is expected that the Main Street Methodist Church will be the scene of great activity on the morning of October 10, when the teachers of northwest Missouri will be ready for the opening of the first session of the Twenty-Third Annual Northwest Missouri Teachers Association. The change of place for the general meetings is necessitated by the extensive remodeling which is going on in the College Auditorium, the usual place of meeting.

Teachers will be admitted to the general sessions upon presentation of their membership receipts. College students who wish to attend will be admitted upon presentation of their College activity tickets. Wives and husbands of teachers may secure guest tickets at the desk which is to be located in the basement of the church.

Presiding at the first general session will be Mr. H. D. Williams, superintendent of schools at Craig, who is president of the Association. After the invocation, which will be pronounced by the Reverend Fred H. Terry, pastor of the Baptist church in Maryville, and music by the College conservatory of music, Mr. Williams will make the opening address of the meeting. His subject will be "Our Task."

From Thursday morning, October 10, until the Homecoming game on Friday night, the time will be filled with meetings for the visiting teachers. Various luncheons and dinners have been arranged for groups with common interests.

Details of the Fine Arts Luncheon, the "Homecoming" Dinner, the Commerce Luncheon, the Speech Program and Luncheon are to be found under "Meetings and Social Events" in the printed program found elsewhere in this paper.

The officers who have worked to make this meeting of the Association possible are, besides Mr. Williams as president, as follows: First vice-president, Mr. Leonard Jones, superintendent of Schools, Buchanan County; second vice-president, Mr. Earle S. Tegarden, superintendent of schools, Caldwell County; third vice-president, Mr. E. O. Hammond, superintendent of schools, Platteburg; secretary, Mr. Bart Cooper, of the Education Department, Northwest Missouri State Teachers College; treasurer, Mr. Hubert Garrett, of the Social Science Department, Northwest Missouri State Teachers College.

The executive committee is made up of Mr. William Booth, superintendent of schools, Fairfax; Mr. C. K. Thompson, superintendent of schools, Fatsburg; Miss Hatlie Jones, graduate student, University of Minnesota. Mr. Booth's term of office expires this year.

To serve as department chairman to make arrangements for the departmental programs the following people have been appointed: High school section, Mr. Raymond Moore, superintendent of schools, King City; elementary school, Miss Virginia George, principal of elementary school, Albany; rural school, Mr. L. L. King, Souder school, Nodaway county; commerce, Mr. G. D. Kelley, Gower; speech, Miss Hatlie Jones, with Mrs. Althea Flowers Applegate, Albany, acting chairman; physical education, Mr. Eddie Hiner, Pickett High School, St. Joseph.

Last Year Student Writes from Cape

"You can imagine that I am still interested in everything that is going on in and around Maryville and that my school year there won't be forgotten so soon," reads a letter from Harvey Zuckerman, who now signs himself Harvey H. Mann.

Last year's students will remember Mr. Zuckerman as one of the German young men who were on the campus as students. He is this year at Cape Girardeau.

He writes that his mother and brother came over from England the week of September 9 and are to be with him at the Cape. "It is needless to tell how happy I am that they got out of that mess and are now over here," he says.

Cecil Mullikin, who was granted the B. S. degree in 1939, will begin teaching in November in the Arbyrd Consolidated School, Arbyrd, Missouri. The late opening of the school is due to the fact that it is located in the cotton belt and each fall "cotton vacation" is planned to permit students to pick cotton. Mr. Mullikin will teach mathematics and will coach boys' athletics from the seventh grade through high school.

Freshmen Have The Last Laugh

In Walk-Out Day Activities
They Get Revenge For Beltings.

"Saved by the bugle," said one freshman as the humanities class swarmed into the hall, Wednesday, after the bugle blew announcing "Walk-Out" day. These students were relieved from taking a Humanities test.

Smiles tugged at the corners of the college students' mouths as they tucked their books into lockers and gathered in front of the administration building to corral the freshmen boys and girls together for the traditional march to town. Freshmen acquiesced and began their march to town as upperclassmen wielded their authority.

The march came to a temporary halt on Main street in front of the square as sharp commands to do the freshmen kneel punctured the air. "All together now, freshmen," yelled the upperclassmen. "One two, three and four." On one, the yearlings came to attention. On two, they placed nervous fingers on the buttons of their green caps and on three, they lowered themselves to kneel in humility before the upperclassmen. The count of four found them rising back into an upright position and five brought them to attention for a period of brief relaxation.

Things soon of this performance and becoming eager for the running of the belt line, the upperclassmen ordered the freshmen to march back out to the STC campus and the college gymnasium where the freshmen lost their belts to upperclassmen intent on having a whack or two. The freshmen ran the length of the belt line formed by a double line of upperclassmen.

At this point, carefully prepared plans of the freshmen caught the upperclassmen off guard. The freshmen turned and took hold of Charles Strong of Maryville, who attended STC last year, and took him under protest to the tank where he was doused well. Five other STC upperclassmen, including the student president, Robert Turner of Platte City, were given a tell-tale haircut by the freshmen. The snipping of scissors left them with short hair at the front of their heads.

Class football games were then played during the morning. The freshmen bowed to the junior team and the sophomores beat the seniors.

At noon, STC students and faculty members had a Walk-out day lunch at the College park. At 1:30 in the afternoon a program was given by the freshmen at the Missouri theater. Paul Fields acted as master of ceremonies, dressed as a Hindu magician, using a red magic globe as part of his equipment. The program consisted of, whistling solo, William Slaughter; tap dance and reading, Mrs. Allan Bing; quartet, Max Babb, Bruce Barrett, J. R. Carpenter, and Dean Driver; piano solo, Alice Newton; solo, Dorothy White; banjo and French harp duet, Don Carter and Don Lockson; reading, Violetta Weems; duet, Emma Ruth Kendall, and Muriel Sutton; and xylophone solo, Billy Tebow. The program was closed by the audience singing the Alma Mater. The College dance band played several selections.

Upper-classmen who were in charge of the afternoon program were Eugene McLean, Iola Argo, Nyda Snyder, Leland Hamilton, Iola Langland, Paul Fields and Edward Bird.

Bleeding Set Shows Old Method of Cure

A bleeding-set used by a barber of Denmark one hundred years or more ago, when bleeding was a common method of treating many kinds of illness, is now in the possession of Mr. and Mrs. Alma Nelson of Guilford. It was demonstrated at the College in the home economics department Monday of this week by Bertha Mildred Nelson. Originally, it is thought, the set belonged to Miss Nelson's great-grandfather. Her grandfather, the late Mr. Carl Christian Nelson, brought it from Denmark in 1870. Prior to that time his mother had used it, serving as barber-doctor to the community in which she lived. It is thought that she learned the art and received the instruments from her father.

Two instruments comprise the set, one for single incisions and one for multiple incisions. Both are made of brass, and both have extremely sharp, thin blades that are operated by means of levers. The blades work so rapidly that their movement cannot be seen.

The one for single incisions is about two and one-half inches long with a blade resembling a miniature hatchet. After cocking it as one would a rifle, one releases the blade by pressing a lever. It was used particularly on the arms and legs. After the incision was made, the patient was required to grip some object with either the hands or feet to keep the blood flowing freely.

The instrument for multiple incisions is about a two-inch cube with twelve semicircular blades on the bottom side that may be so set, that an apparently flat side is placed against the flesh of the person to be treated. When the button is pressed to release the knives they cut twelve gashes about one inch in length. The gashes were usually made in the person's back. A screw in the top allows the regulation of the depth of the insertion of the blades in the flesh.

The boxes in which these are kept are the ones in which they were originally purchased. One still has the price mark on it although it is not entirely decipherable. Both boxes are made of extremely light wood covered with leather. The smaller box is lined with chamol and the larger one with red velvet. The catches and hinges are very delicately and interestingly made. They are very small and are made of brass.

Athletes Better Drivers

Athletes are potentially better automobile drivers than non-athletes. According to tests given to 400 licensed drivers at Pennsylvania State College, the athletes proved themselves superior in every respect except knowledge of motor laws and rules.

Would Legislate to Give Youth Service

At this time there is no library or central agency in this country which attempts to collect all the relevant material in the youth field and make it continuously available to the persons and organizations interested in youth. To correct this situation legislation setting up a Youth Reference Service in the Library of Congress has been introduced.

This Youth Reference Service is designed to:

1. Act as a clearing house of information on youth needs, problems, studies, significant experiments, and programs.
2. Stimulate other libraries to similar activities.
3. Keep youth leaders and other interested persons informed on current contributions in the youth field.
4. Provide a source of curriculum materials for schools and colleges.
5. Make the research, recommendations, and experimental findings of emergency and permanent youth-serving agencies available to other groups.
6. Give counsel to persons preparing these, conducting research, or writing books or articles on youth topics.
7. Prepare special youth bibliographies.

Bills are pending before the House Library Committee (Bill H. R. 9763) and the Senate Library Committee (S. 3987) at present. Copies of the hearing on Bill H. R. 9763 may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., by anyone interested in the matter.

Selections for these concerts have been chosen from the National Band requirement list, classes B, C, and D.

STC Enrollment Second Largest

Conscription Has No Effect on Attendance, Pres.
Lamkin Says.

"Conscription or draft has had no effect on this semester's enrollment at the college," said President Uel W. Lamkin. "Our enrollment is approximately the same as a year ago."

The enrollment at the college is 380 at the present time. Last year the enrollment at the college was 395. This year's enrollment is the second largest enrollment in the history of the college.

Due to the practice of alternation in the country schools, there is a smaller number of county students entering the freshman class of high schools in the even years than in the odd years. This results, Mr. Lamkin says, in a relatively smaller number of high school seniors in even than in odd years, and usually a smaller freshman class in all junior and senior colleges in the even years.

Affects College Attendance. In the country schools of Missouri the fifth and sixth grades are combined and the seventh and eighth grades are combined and in the odd years when the eighth grade is taught the graduating classes are larger than in the even years when the seventh grade is taught.

The practice of alternation is a real factor in determining the attendance at college. According to the annual reports of the State Department of Public Schools, the number of county school graduates dropped from 20,103 in 1935 to 11,420 in 1936.

Figures are not yet available but it is expected that the number of high school graduates will show a marked decrease in 1940 from the peak of 31,490 in 1939.

The State Department of Public Schools' reports show the following figures for graduates of the rural schools: in 1935, 20,103; in 1936, 11,420; in 1937, 19,793; in 1938, 12,783; and in 1939, 20,126.

This year school has a graver significance than usual. In all the world this is the only country whose schools are still open and still free. More and more as the liberties of peoples are curtailed, education becomes the rare privilege of the elect. In our blest land it is the unquestioned right of the many.

Draft Registration Date Has Been Set Students Must Register; Call May Be Deferred.

The President of the United States has set October 16 as the date for registration. It will be conducted by election officials or such other individuals as the county clerk may appoint for each election district. The county clerk may, upon the request of a school or college, appoint a special registrar to conduct the registration within such institution. The student may register at any convenient place regardless of legal residence or domicile. The county clerk will mail his registration card to the local selective service (draft) board having jurisdiction over the area which the student indicates as his place of residence.

Classification
Each student (as well as all other men, 21 to 36) will be assigned a number and will be subject to call for classification. Prior to receipt of call he will receive a personal data sheet, one section of which provides for recording the individual's education and includes a specific question relating to attendance at school or college during the current academic year. If the student requests deferment and if his attendance during 1940 is verified by the college, his training may be deferred until July 1, 1941, or until the end of the academic year.

Although a literal interpretation of the Act, as worded, might exclude some students from its deferment clause, there is reason to think that the Act will be liberally interpreted through rules and regulations now being drawn, to carry out a policy of deferring those students whose major occupation is the pursuit of program of studies leading to a degree or certificate. Local boards will have discretion in deferring students in educational institutions or in courses of study not clearly within the Act (see par. 2 above), and part-time students, who may or may not be deferred because of their course of study, or other occupation. Authority for classifying any individual, subject to the process of appeal, lies with the local board.

Teachers and Research Workers
The Act prohibits the blanket deferment of an occupational group in any plant or institution. However the present wording of the occupational deferment clause is sufficiently broad to leave wide discretion to local boards to defer training and service for individual teachers and research workers whose work is essential to the national health, safety, or interest. Every effort is being made to conserve the continuity of basic social institutions.

HONORABLE LLOYD W. KING
State Superintendent of Schools and
President of the State Teachers Association.

Voluntary Enlistment
A student may prefer to take his year of training at a time when it will interfere least with the continuity of his program. On the other hand, indiscriminate volunteering should be discouraged and every effort should be made to avoid the development of the attitude that it is more patriotic to volunteer than to be called through the Selective Service Act.

National Guard
A student who is a member of a unit of the National Guard will be subject to the requirements for duty of such unit and does not come under the potential deferment clause of the Selective Service Act.

Reserve Officers
A student or faculty member in the Officers' Reserve corps, although he would not come under the provisions of the Selective Service Act, may be selected on an individual basis for active duty as military needs and the circumstances of the individual may justify.

daughter, Ellen. His wife was the former Countess Felicia Gitzaka, of Washington, D. C.

Just three years after his graduation, Mr. Pearson was lecturing in the University of Pennsylvania, and then, a little later, in 1922, he was off on one of his first big newspaper assignments. This took him to China, Japan, and Siberia to observe the results of the Washington Arms Conference of 1922. In 1925 he covered the anti-foreign strikes which swept over China, and two years later he covered the Geneva Naval Conference for Japanese newspapers.

Other highlights of his career might easily include his covering of the Cuban Revolution in 1931, and his trip to Paris with Secretary Kellogg for the signing of the Anti-War Treaty in 1928. Between these assignments, he was active on the staff of the United States News and the Baltimore Sun, besides writing his column and working on his books, of which there are several. He is, with Robert Allen, the author of "Washington Merry-Go-Round", the "American Diplomatic Game", "The Nine Old Men", and other noteworthy commentaries on the American scene. Incidentally, all of them have been best sellers.

After accomplishments such as these, people might think that he would be willing to rest at ease. But not Drew Pearson! He is still "at it" with a column on Washington affairs—a daily "Merry-Go-Round" that still finds millions of eager readers. Like most other genuine newspaper men and women, he finds it impossible to quit. For the newspaper business is a constantly challenging, intriguing, thing that those who know it best cannot desert for any other field. It is a living adventure. For proof of that, gentlemen and ladies: Drew Pearson!

Safety Education Director Admires Waugh's Painting

Is Surprised at Extent of College Collection; Has Praise for Donors.

Attracted to the splendid art collection of the College because of Mr. Frederick J. Waugh's painting, "Surf", Mr. P. F. Drury, Director of Safety Education and Traffic Engineering of the Automobile Club of Missouri, was surprised to discover the many fine paintings which had been collected for the College by Miss Olive DeLuce, instructor in Fine Arts.

"There are thousands in America who would love to have Waugh's painting of the 'Surf' adorning the mantle of their drawing room," commented Mr. Drury. Going on further to explain the matchless beauty of the painting, he said that "None of Waugh's paintings carry a greater realism of the surf. Many of the marine painters have attempted to show the majesty and rhythm and the beauty of the sea, but perhaps to Waugh alone, who was a mystic, was given the privilege of portraying the surf in true realism with its refractive colors which give to his paintings the life that exists in the surf itself. Stepping closer to analyze the painting, which hangs in Social Hall Mr. Drury commented upon the intricate strokes used to build up the feeling of depth and the wonderful use of reflected colors which are caught alone by the true artist. 'One can not help getting the feeling of the surf when viewing this picture,' he said.

"It is my hope, with the permission of President Lamkin, to have plates made of this picture and distribute reproduction copies to other art schools of the state," said Mr. Drury. "In my opinion there is no grander gift any class can give to this college than an addition to this splendid art collection."

Prix de Paris Contest Offers Women Careers

The Sixth Prix de Paris, Vogue's annual career contest for college seniors, was announced today by Edna Woolman Chase, editor of Vogue magazine.

"Our purpose in sponsoring the Prix de Paris contest," said Mrs. Chase, "is to discover college girls who have the ability to write and a flair for fashion. To us the contest is a means of adding new talent to our editorial staff. To contestants it offers a training in fashion reporting and feature writing which they will find immensely valuable, whether it leads to a prize or not."

This year, Vogue's Prix de Paris contest offers seven major awards. First prize is a year's position on Vogue's fashion staff. Formerly, this prize included six months in Vogue's Paris office, but now, due to world conditions, the winner will spend the full period of her award in Vogue's New York office. Second prize—a special Vanity Fair award—is six months as a feature writer on Vogue's staff. In addition, five cash prizes will be awarded for the best contest theses.

Besides the seven major prizes, "Honorable Mentions" will be awarded to contestants whose papers show unusual merit. These awards carry with them the possibility of jobs in a wide variety of fields. Honourable Mention winners will be interviewed for jobs by stores, advertising agencies, and publications. Of the 60 leading entrants in the five previous contests, 40 are today following careers in a variety of fields.

Last year over a thousand seniors from 257 colleges in 48 states entered the Prix de Paris. First prize winner was Mary Moon, of New York City, a senior at Bryn Mawr. Second prize went to Jean Arms, of Evanston, Ill., a senior at

Advice to Freshmen Causes Indignation

President Snyder of Northwestern University has suggested to the Student Governing Board that freshmen be advised not to participate in campus activities during their first year in college. The freshmen have risen in "righteous indignation" against this proposal, a proposal which is the most intelligent and courageous that has come from the university administration.

President Snyder is absolutely right on this issue. The primary need of the student is time. He needs time to study, time to read, time to think. But this time is the one thing which he will not find at school. His fraternity brothers will urge him—using subtle persuasive devices—to perform pledge duties, to write fraternity letters, and to spend time in fraternity rushing. His classmates will urge him to work on dance committees, and to petition for class commission. The student himself, desiring to be popular, believing that many of these minor institutions are harmless and some of them valuable, does not know how to say no.

Oddly enough, it is usually the potentially better students who are the most misled. These students find it quite possible to get a good grade point even while carrying on outrageous burdens of activities. But of course they do not find it possible to do the idle reading, the secondary study, and the reflective thinking which would result in a growth of their depth and understanding but which would not show in the grades.

In the MIAA Camp

Statistics on the Maryville Football-Chadron Eagle football game at Chadron last Friday have been received by Coach Ryland Milne from L. R. Spence of the public department, which corrects some of the scoring plays as reported in press report.

Spence wound up his letter to wishing Milne "good luck to your fine team against Washington U. as well as throughout the season. The statistics as sent by Mr. Spence Team Maryville Chadron: Yards gained rushing 194 0 Yards lost passing and 8 10 Yards gained passing 98 24 Total net yards gained 284 101 Passes attempted 12 10 Passes completed 6 7 Passes intercepted by 3 2 Yards penalized 40 1 Yards lost 11 0

Jack Padilla scored the first touchdown late in the second quarter on a 28-yard end run. Midway in the third period Loos took lateral from a teammate who had taken a short pass over the line and although trapped several times streaked down the field about 40 yards to score. Near the close of the third quarter Joe Kurtright flipped a pass to Breckenridge who scored. The run and pass was good for 10 yards. Schottel tallied the last counter midway the last period after Padilla made a 37-yard run. Ralph Kurtright kicked a pair of placements and Bob Gregory made the other.

Although the third week of the season, none of the MIAA teams get into conference play. Then on October 11 the conference fight begins, with the Southern conference foes coming north to play for homecoming crowds gathered at the Teachers' conventions.

6-Man Horace Mann Grid Team to Play Oregon Here Today

The Horace Mann high school Cubs will initiate the six-man football season here at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when they play Oregon.

On the basis of comparative scores, the Cubs should defeat Oregon, using Fortescue and Craig as the test tubes. The Cubs have a slight advantage. It works this way: Craig defeated Fortescue 47 to 0 and Craig also defeated Maryville 51 to 12 last week. Oregon was about one touchdown stronger than Fortescue and defeated them in league play 20 to 14. The Cubs, thus, are about two touchdowns better than Fortescue, which is one touchdown weaker than Oregon, making, simply, a one-touchdown advantage for the Cubs—if you figure that way.

The Cubs have had considerable shifting around this week in an effort to get more weight in the backfield for power plays. Coaches Harold Hull and Harry Darr moved Surplus from end to fullback position and sent K. McGinness to end in Surplus' berth. Hengeler goes in at center instead of Linneman.

The squad was also strengthened this week by the addition of two former squad members, Paul Howard and Donald Sherlock. These two men will be ineligible for this game but will be available later on.

Supt. King to Talk Before Association

The Honorable Lloyd W. King, State Superintendent of Schools and President of the Missouri State Teachers Association, comes to the district Teachers Association with a message in his lecture which he calls "The Ramparts We Watch."

Superintendent King is a man who speaks from wide experience with Missouri schools. A native of Marion county, he took his A. B. degree from William Jewell College at Liberty and his M. Ed. degree from teaching experience began in Palmyra, his home town. Later he served as principal in the high schools of Shelby and Memphis and was for fourteen years superintendent of schools at Monroe City. He taught a number of years in the summer sessions in the education department of Culver-Stockton College at Canton. He has been State Superintendent of Schools since 1934.

Mr. King is a member of the board of directors of William Woods College, Fulton; serves on the Boards of Regents of the five state teachers' colleges; is president of the State Board of Education and of the State Board of Vocational Education; and is President of the Missouri State Teachers Association. In the World War, Superintendent King served overseas twelve months. He entered as a private in the 19th Machine Gun Battalion, 7th Division. He received his commission at Combat Officers and Training School at Langers, France. After the Armistice he served for several months as school officer for the District of Bourges (Cher), France. He is an active member of the American Legion and of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Dr. Frederick Seamster, in the office of the State Department of Education at Jefferson City, held a meeting at Tarkio, September 30, for those interested in high school guidance in the Northwest District. Several from Maryville attended.

William McMullin Elected to Office

The International Relations and Social Science Club held its first meeting of the year in Social Hall October 2. The election of officers was the first issue of the evening. Eugene McLean presided. The results were as follows: William McMullin, president; Dick Dempsey, vice-president; Betty Tarpy, secretary and treasurer; John Dunlap, publicity manager.

Dr. Foster, sponsor, continued the meeting with a short discussion of the aims and objectives of the club. He also gave a brief history of the organization.

The Social Science Club was organized on the campus in 1923 and is connected with the Canadian Endowment for Peace. That means that the Carnegie Endowment for Peace, many books are sent for use. This deposit is to be found in the northwest corner of the main reading room. Other books can be found on the stacks at the library.

The International Relations Club is, as the name might suggest, an international organization. The United States is divided into six conference regions. The College has sent representatives to this conference for a number of years and was host to it in 1935. This year's conference is to be at Warrensburg. Dr. Foster closed his remarks with a challenge to the interest of the students by asking, "If the disturbed conditions of the world today do not excite a desire to discuss problems of international nature, what would?"

26 Coeds Pledged To Two Sororities At College Here

Twenty-six coeds at STC were pledged Tuesday to the social educational sororities, Alpha Sigma Alpha and Sigma Sigma Sigma, following a week of whirlwind rushing and parties which were given for the rushees.

Tuesday afternoon found small bands of the Greek letter sororities huddling together on Main street as they awaited 4:30 o'clock to arrive. Finally, word was received by these anxious members that the Alpha Sigs had taken fourteen pledges and that the Tri Sigs had pledged twelve new members.

Three Maryville girls were pledged to the Alpha Sigma sorority. They are: Nadean Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton L. Allen, 410 South Mulberry Street; Irene Heideman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Heideman, 133 South Buchanan; and Dorothy Lee Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Montgomery, 830 South Buchanan.

Other Alpha Sigma pledges are: Betty Townsend, Patty Parish, Savannah; Sarah Thompson, Betty Smalley, Evonne Atchburg, St. Joseph; Susan Foley, Gallatin; Helen Adams and Frances Elam, Albany; Ruth McPherrin, Charleston, S. C.; Evelyn Orley, Mount City; and Martha McCue, Jamesport.

Independents Sponsor All-College Party

The correct spot for everyone to be, Friday evening, is Room 114, the Old West Library. That night the Independent Club is sponsoring an all-college get-acquainted party. Everyone is invited and assured that this is the chance to meet people. The club guarantees that each person will get acquainted with someone he did not know before the party. Dancing, cards, ping-pong, and other games will be provided.

"You might win the door-prize we're offering," say the club members. "The tickets cost ten cents, but we're offering fifty cents' worth of fun from 8 o'clock until midnight. Dates or not, as you like!"

NOTHING CAN TAKE PLACE OF TEACHER

There is no substitute for a good teacher. There never was nor will there ever be. No labor-saving device will ever waive the need for a good teacher. . . . The president of the college is no substitute for her, nor is the principal of the school. Her failure is but the prelude of theirs, since, by any logic, they exist in order that the service she has to perform may exist. All the gadgets that man has devised for the schoolroom will not redeem a poor teacher though they may help a good one. . . . A poor teacher fashions the curriculum into the rigidity of a catechism which tends to create an unbearable tedium and a spiritual sterility. A good teacher conceives the curriculum to be the unified stuff of man's achievements and dreams. . . . The radio does not pretend to be a substitute for a good teacher, not does the book, nor newspaper, nor moving picture. They are about people, but they are not people. She is flesh and mind and spirit. It is her mission to save the good that man has done, and to make sure its increase.

Margie—'Always Thinking of You'

Press agents being notorious practitioners of the old army game, it's no surprise that beautiful Margie Hart, burlesque queen, was "worried" that national guardsmen might get lonely during year's active duty. She sent Maj.-Gen. William Haskell, New York commandant, 5000 autographed copies of her photo, above, asked him to distribute them to his troops. She specified "bachelors only."

The band has been divided into sections with the following student assistants in charge: Woodwinds, Dick Moyer, and Leslie Summer-ville; Eases, Don Moyer, Burton Dunbar, and Frank Baker; Percussion, Billy Tebow.

O'Neillian Club Looks Toward College Revue

From seventy five to one hundred freshmen attended the audition for talent Monday night. About twenty students were chosen from this group to take part in the Walk-Out day program, according to Mr. Robert Main, director of dramatics. Present with Mr. Main was the program committee for Walk-Out day and Dorothy Steeby, who accompanied the various numbers.

The members of the entertainment committee were: Eugene McLean, Paul Fields, Iola Bird, Leland Hamilton, Edward Argo, and Nyda Snyder.

Mr. Main reported that there was so much enthusiasm shown at the meeting that an all-college revue is being considered for the spring quarter. This would incorporate all sorts of student talent.

Naturalist Speaker Returns for Lecture

Dr. T. B. Musselman will address the Teachers Association at the joint session of the Elementary and Rural Sections Friday afternoon, October 11, on "Strange Tragedies in Bird Life."

Dr. Musselman, who has addressed the Association at previous meetings, is a rapid speaker, using a large vocabulary in developing the pictures which make his discussion so graphic. His lectures are filled with humor and pathos, and as he progresses, he dramatizes his discussions so vividly that he holds his audience spellbound.

Dr. Musselman is well qualified to speak on his subject, as his native tasks and wanderings have carried him over a large part of the United States as well as Mexico and Western Canada.

Have Wiener Roast
The Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority had a wiener roast Monday night in honor of fourteen girls who were to become pledges Tuesday. About thirty-four girls attended the picnic. Miss Waggoner, sponsor, was also present.

Bearcat Football Schedule 1940

Wilbur "Sparky" Stalcup

New Star Rises In Bearcat Fold

Jack Padilla, Lightweight Half, Proves Ability as Ball Toter.

The Maryville Bearcats, unable to replace such rugged losses in Bill Bernau and Stan Pele in their championship teams of the last two years, this year presents a new star in their satellite.

Of a far different type is Little Jack Padilla, 150 pound Stuart, Ia., sophomore whom the opposition could dub "The Little Man Who Wasn't There." Tallequah, Okla., and Chadron, Neb., Teachers had trouble locating the dark complexioned youth who almost conceals the ball in running with his back bent low. His teammates have high praise for the boy who was "Just a squad member" last year and has torn off long runs in the 46-7 victory over the Redmen and 27 to 0 win over the Eagles.

This week he is running again in a halfback spot while the Bearcats are preparing an aerial attack by which they hope to befuddle the Washington Bears at St. Louis Saturday afternoon. It will be game No. 3 on the 1940 schedule and all Bearcatdom is hoping it will be Consecutive Victory No. 21.

Padilla came into his niche when Hard Hitting Don Paxson, junior class halfback, was forced to watch from the sidelines with a wrenched back. Paxson, also a boy with swivel hips, hopes to be ready for the Missouri Valley conference competition, as do his coaches who are trying to get a reserve backfield into readiness.

Their crying need is more experienced backfield men, as when they run out of Joe Kurtright at quarterback. Harry Darr, halfback and safety, Paxson, Padilla, and Ivan Schottel, fullback and line-backer, the material is untried.

Coach Ryland Milner and Wilbur Stalcup had three teams running plays in Monday's practice while the "Skunks" were battling the Maryville Spoofhounds on the football field. After putting the first string through an assortment of forward pass plays Coach Milner called in the second string line to see how the plays clicked against opposition.

Bearcats Defeat Chadron 27 to 0

Twentieth Consecutive Victory Is Chalked Up by Maryville Teachers.

Little Harry (Deacon) Darr, 142-pound halfback midget from Bethany, came into his own as the Maryville Bearcats took to the air to defeat the Chadron, Neb., Teachers on Nebraska soil, 27 to 0. It was the same score by which the Maryville Teachers defeated Chadron here last year.

A new star rose in the Maryville fanks, Jack Padilla from the Tall Corn State passing and running off yardage for the Bearcats. Darr, held in check last week against Tallequah, finally got his tempo last night, aiding in the passing attack.

According to Harry T. Sly, the Associated Press correspondent at Chadron, the Bearcats sized up the Eagles in the first quarter and then opened up in the second period. Then the passing attack developed. Joe Kurtright passed to Darr for a dozen yards to set up an end run for the Bethany lad who scored from the 28-yard line. Ralph Kurtright, a guard, booted the placement.

Score on Forward-Lateral
Just before the half ended Ivan Schottel, fullback, intercepted McGinnis' pass and raced to the Eagle seven-yard line, the gun halting further play.

Early in the third quarter Maryville again opened up its aerial attack. Padilla passed to Darr to lateral to Center Larry Loos to score from the Chadron 47 yard line. The forward-lateral was a gain of 53 yards for the Bearcats.

Bob Gregory, another guard, kicked the place kick that gave Maryville a lead of 14 points.

It was not long until Harold Fleming, senior from Sedalia, a center, intercepted an Eagle pass on the Chadron 29 yard line. Padilla again came into the picture. He tossed a 15-yard pass to Darr and then Joe Kurtright passed to Glenn Breckenridge, an end, two plays later, with Breckenridge going over to score. Gregory place-kicked for the extra point.

Padilla Intercepts Pass
Padilla grabbed a Chadron pass early in the fourth, racing to the Chadron 28 yard line. The Maryville team used power plays to score.

WELCOME TO MARYVILLE—TEACHERS OF THE NORTHWEST ASSOCIATION

Washington, the team they upset 9 to 7 last season. Against the Chadron Teachers the Teachers used only their routine plays inasmuch as the Bears had a scout in the stands.

The victory was somewhat a costly one with Paxson going out early. Burdette Moon a freshman half from Cornling, Ia., getting a twisted ankle and Wallace "Pop" Hicks, veteran end, suffering a charley horse. Co-Capt. Larry Loos at center, also received a bruised leg, but was back in practice yesterday.

To Leave Friday
Handicapped by lack of practices last week when the squad left early Wednesday for Chadron, the Bearcats will get a full week's work in preparation for the Washington U. game. The team will leave early Friday morning by bus for St. Louis. Cars probably will convey a number of substitutes as it is hoped to take three full teams. The coaches will take advantage of their arrival Friday evening to watch the Rolla Miners play St. Louis University that night.

The Miners will open the Bearcat home season with a game here October 11.

The line, weakened by graduation, was bolstered this week with Ross Griffith, a letterman who enrolled late, getting into scrimmage at tackle. He didn't make the trip last week, not being ready.

Five MIAA Teams
Win Grid Jousts
Springfield, Warrensburg and Maryville Show Up as Threats.

By the Associated Press
The state teachers college football season still is in the kindergarten state, but already it looks as if the Maryville Bearcats would have to turn into rugs to be beaten.

Inevitable the past two seasons, the MIAA champs have found a pair of 1940 non-conference foes about as tough as scrimmaging the freshmen. Last night the touring Bearcats passed to a 27-0 triumph over the Chadron (Neb.) Teachers—an offensive letup from their 46-7 opening victory against the Tallequah (Okla.) Redmen.

However, the Southwest Missouri Teachers aren't crying "uncle" yet. Instead, looking more and more like the No. 2 MIAA team, Springfield thrashed invading Tallequah 38-0 to maintain a scoring parity with Maryville, counting two touchdowns. Fullback Jack Earp of Springfield made a Jack-in-the-box debut into the conference scoring race.

Two other brothers helped keep the MIAA fraternity on top Friday. Tied last week by Culver-Stockton, Cape Girardeau Teachers staggered Rose Poly from Terre Haute, Ind., 20 to 0, and the Kirkville Bulldogs, finding Central College of the MCAU vulnerable through the line and in the air, won 21-0 at Fayette.

The Mules showed their hand last night when the Warrensburg crew ran roughshod over the always hard-to-beat Gorillas of Pittsburg, Kas. The MIAA representatives beat the Kansas conference team 20 to 0 on the Pittsburg gridiron. Gooch, Gibson and Blake scored for the Mules who took advantage of interceptions to put the ball in scoring position.

Two more Missouri college athletic unionists—William Jewell and Missouri Valley—were beaten by invading interstate collegiate conference foes.

Jewell, still reeling from that massacre at Wake Forest last week, fell to Kansas City (Kas.) Junior college 7 to 0, while the Valley lost to Komper Military 7 to 6.

Only victorious MCAU eleven was Tarkio College. After stalling a Nebraska Wesleyan drive on the two-yard line, the Owls, playing at home, got Wallace Dinsmore through in the fourth quarter to win 6-0.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Flanders are the parents of a son born recently. Mr. Flanders, who is coaching at Seattle, Kansas, is a graduate of the College in the class of 1938. Mrs. Flanders, formerly Miss Lucy Mae Benson, took her degree in 1938.
